PEN PICTURES

JIM FURNELL. A veteran among goalkeepers but belies his age with many magnificent displays. Made his League debut with Burnley in 1960 and joined Argyle in 1970–71 via Liverpool and Arsenal. Born Manchester.

PETER DARKE. A tough-tackling defender who made 26 first team appearances last season. Born Exeter.

PHILIP BURROWS. Signed in June for £16,000 from York City with whom he spent seven seasons. Born Stockport.

JOHNNY HORE. The longest-serving player on the books, having started his Argyle days in 1965. Respected for his consistency and 100 per cent effort. Made 43 appearances last season. Born Foxhole, Cornwall.

CLIVE GRIFFITHS. A centre back signed last month on a year's loan from Manchester United. Welsh schoolboy international. Born Pontypridd.

MIKE GREEN. Another centre back who started his League career in his native Carlisle. Been at Gillingham and Bristol Rovers, to whom Argyle paid a transfer fee of £20,000 in June for his services.

JOHN DELVE. Cost £25,000 from Queens Park Rangers in June. A lively midfield player. Born Isleworth, Middlesex.

STEPHEN DAVEY. Has made a name for himself as a striker with his home town club. Made 42 appearances last season, scoring 13 times. England youth international.

BILL RAFFERTY. A big striker signed from Blackpool for £25,000 last March. After five appearances suffered cartilage trouble but now fit and hungry for goals. Born Port Glasgow.

PAUL MARINER. Signed from Chorley last summer and scored 13 goals in 41 League games. Born Bolton.

HARRY BURROWS. Made 143 League appearances for Stoke before joining Argyle last August. Unlucky with injuries last season but his 53 goals for Stoke make him a man to be watched. Born St. Helens.

PLYMOUTH ARGYLE

Argyle are hoping that half a dozen close season signings will help them to be more than a run-of-the-mill side this season. They have spent over £60,000 on these new reinforcements, three or four of whom will probably be on view at Deepdale today.

It seems likely, however, that it will take some time to find the right blend for, while North End were enjoying a successful pre-season Scottish tour, Argyle were struggling in their friendly matches. They lost at Bolton and did not impress when they drew at Southport.

In the past they have earned respect at Deepdale, not always going away empty handed. The two clubs have met at Deepdale on eight occasions since the war, all in the Second Division, the encounters resulting in three victories for North End, one for Argyle and four draws.

Plymouth have never been in the First Division. They were elected to the Third Division (South) in 1920 and first gained promotion to the Second Division in 1929/30. Prior to that, they had been runners-up for six successive seasons in the days when one club from each of the two Third Divisions was promoted, a remarkable record of frustration.

Their present spell in the Third commenced after relegation in 1967–68 and though they have twice collected 50 points from their 46 games they have never seriously been in contention for promotion.

Last season they reached the semi-finals of the League Cup and it was felt that their efforts in that direction distracted them and their performances in the League suffered to the extent that they collected only 44 points and were eighth from the bottom of the table.

Known as The Pilgrims for obvious historical reasons, they are one of the most-travelled clubs in the League. Their 120-mile trip to Bournemouth is the nearest they have at the moment to a local "derby", both other Devon clubs, Torquay and Exeter, being currently in the Fourth Division.

Today's match has meant one of their longest journeys of the season but when they visit Grimsby their round trip will be one of over 700 miles.

MANAGER

Tony Waiters comes back home when he returns to the North West. A Southport man, he served Blackpool for eight seasons between 1959 and 1967 as goalkeeper, picking up one England cap and other representative honours in the process.

He then spent 18 months as F.A. Regional coach for the North West before moving to Liverpool F.C. as coach.

Then, surprisingly, he returned to first team football as player-coach for Burnley at the age of 33 and observes, "If I could do it after a break of three years I am sure your Bobby Charlton can do it after only a year on the sidelines".

He afterwards had short spells coaching at Coventry and Tranmere prior to his appointment as manager at Plymouth.

KEEP OFF

Please do not damage the advertisements facing the pitch or obscure them, and KEEP OFF THE GRASS. The playing area must be kept clear of spectators. Needless damage is done when supporters go on to it. THIS MUST CEASE, otherwise well-behaved youngsters as well as offenders may be penalised. You can cheer from the terraces.

RECORD REQUESTS

Supporters wishing to have a record played in the pre-match or half-time entertainment spots over the public address system should send their requests to the Secretary, Deepdale, Preston, marking their envelope in the bottom left hand corner "D.J."

CHARLT

On behalf of the club I am delighted to welcome our supporters at the start of the new campaign with the hope that better things will be in store for us after the disappointments of last season.

Our Scottish tour was most successful in more ways than one and a particular feature was the emergence of some of the young players who showed new confidence and determination against excellent opposition.

For instance, we beat Glasgow Celtic, who put out a strong side, 2–1, and then we drew 1–1 with Dundee, last season's Scottish League cup winners. This game was most noticeable for the impression left on it by Tony Morley. He showed that he has matured into an extremely capable midfield player and I am sure the Scots will remember the goal he scored for some time to come.

He ran from the half-way line, brushing aside two or three opponents before scoring and his all-round performance brought many nods of approval.

ON CHAT

Not only did this game reveal that we could see a new Tony Morley this season but the general display of everyone, including their unselfishness and team work gave me great personal satisfaction.

Micky Elwiss has really settled down now and John Bird is going to be as strong as any defender in the Division but I would like to stress that we will not be a lot of individuals but a team of great potential which we are now beginning to see come to blossom.

One thing we have been lacking for a long time has been the encouragement of a comfortable win and that came against Raith Rovers, reputably one of the most physical sides in the Scottish League. It was good to see all the hard work and thoughtfulness which went into our 4–1 win.

North End have not had such a big win for a long time but I am sure it will not be the last and that our form on this tour augurs well for the new season.

We resume with a smaller professional staff of 16 and no new faces except that yours truly will be out there to help as long as he is needed.

All teams start from scratch at the beginning of a new season; we hope the bounce of the ball will go our way and that we shall be in our present company only very temporarily.

CAR PARKING IN AND AROUND DEEPDALE

We are asked by the Lancashire Constabulary to draw the attention of our supporters to complaints received by them regarding the parking of vehicles with near-side wheels on footpaths in side streets in the Deepdale area. Damage is being caused to footpaths and we are asked to point out that parking of this type is an offence against the provisions of the Highways Act 1959.

The Police ask for the co-operation of supporters in this matter.

OUR DIVISION

Many changes have occurred in Division III since North End were forced to spend a season there in 1970–71.

Aston Villa, who accompanied us in our descent, took one more season to escape and, if only because of the excellent home gates they command, will probably be missed most of all.

Crystal Palace and Swindon Town, who suffered the "drop" with us, can be expected to bid strongly for promotion but if Chesterfield and Wrexham can produce last season's form they should also be in contention.

Bury and Gillingham, who were relegated in North End's promotion season to Division IV, have fought their way back, along with Peterborough and Colchester.

The latter two will be new visitors to Deepdale and other interesting newcomers include Hereford United, who took Barrow's place in Division IV and quickly won promotion.

There will, of course, be a resumption of the "derby" games with Blackburn Rovers and a renewal of battle with old and respected foes like Huddersfield, Charlton and Grimsby.

The big question so far as North End are concerned is, of course, how quickly can we get back into the Second Division.

Apart from a spell in the October when they lost one match and drew the next four, North End never faltered and their record at the finish was:

P46 W22 D17 L7 For 63 Ag. 39 Pts 61

The only question in the closing stages was whether North End or Fulham would be the champions and North End made sure by beating Fulham and Rotherham in the last two games

It is interesting to note that the team in the final game was: Kelly, Ross, McNab, Spark, Hawkins, Heppolette, Clark, Spavin, Lloyd, Ham and Bird, of whom only Spark and Bird remain available this season.

The last two home gates that season averaged over 25,000, which, together with the fact that the supporters never saw their side lose at home, leads to the conclusion that life in the Third Division need not be so bad after all provided you don't stay there too long.

SNAP SHOTS

After the World Cup the event which got the most publicity during the summer was Bill Shankly's decision to retire.

It is safe to say that nobody relishes the idea of "Shanks" taking a back seat after his great contribution to the game both as a player and a manager but some of the recent T.V. shots of this highly respected character have shown him looking more than a bit strained and he must surely be justified in at least taking a rest.

His years at Preston marked him as a great favourite. He never spared himself and though he put in 100 per cent effort he always seemed fit for another 90 minutes when the final whistle went.

That he has been able to pass his great enthusiasm for the game on to others has been one of the secrets of his success at Anfield. This week he was acclaimed in his native Scotland when he led Liverpool out onto the field against Glasgow Celtic for a sad but memorable farewell as a manager.

His name will always be linked with Liverpool's exciting young star Kevin Keegan, whom he took from Fourth Division Scunthorpe and moulded into an international. Yet he was very close to losing his chance to sign this player when North End had their eyes on him and would probably have clinched the deal had they had more cash available. Our loss was Shankly's gain.

It only remains to say that thousands of football followers in Preston will want to be associated with the wish that "Shanks" enjoys good health, happiness and lots of good football in his retirement.
